

On the third Tuesday of the term April 5th 1870 Henry Kornkemeier a native of the Kingdom of Prussia comes into Court and presents his petition to be admitted a citizen of the United States and upon proof of the allegations in the said petition set forth and he taking in open Court the Oath of Naturalisation the said Henry Kornkemeier is admitted a citizen of the United States of America.

On the third Tuesday of the term April 5th 1870 George Arnold Haas a native of Bavaria comes into Court and presents his petition to be admitted a citizen of the United States and upon proof of the allegations in the said petition set forth and he taking in open Court the Oath of Naturalisation the said George Arnold Haas is admitted a citizen of the United States of America.

On the third Tuesday of the term April 5th 1870 John Wahn a native of Great Britain comes into Court and presents his petition to be admitted a citizen of the United States and upon proof of the allegations in the said petition set forth and he taking in open Court the Oath of Naturalisation the said John Wahn is admitted a citizen of the United States of America.