Helping genealogists discover their Illinois roots.

JOIN US AT THE BELLEVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR FREE GENEALOGY CLASSES!

A trio of free genealogy classes will be hosted by the St. Clair County Genealogical Society at the Belleville Public Library. Each class is geared toward adult learners and is open to the public. Please register by calling (618) 234-0441 to facilitate seating arrangements. The presenter is Diane Walsh, the Society's Webmaster, Parliamentarian, Past-President and former Quarterly Editor. A researcher with forty years experience, she has authored two research guides and books on her maternal and paternal lines.

Saturday, June 17, 2023, 10:00-11:00 a.m. - Your Genealogy: Fact or Fiction?

The fundamentals of family history research will be illustrated in this session.

Saturday, July 15, 2023, 10:00-11:00 a.m. - The Truth About Online Genealogy Resources

The strengths and weaknesses of often-used genealogy databases online will be discussed.

Saturday, October 7, 2023, 10:00-11:00 a.m. - Genealogy Gems in a Pile of Documents

This session demonstrates information found in St. Clair County records over two centuries. Historical church, court cases, deeds, military, probate files, and vital record examples will be shared.
